

Letters About Literature

is a national reading and writing promotion program of the Center for the Book in the Library of Congress, supported locally by the

This project is supported in part by the Institute of U.S. Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act, administered in West Virginia by the State Librarian, and by the West Virginia Humanities Council, a state program of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Letters About Literature

Culture Center
1900 Kanawha Boulevard East
Charleston, WV 25305
304-558-3978

Tuesday May 27, 2014

Although Letters About Literature honors students, we applaud

Parents and Teachers for the support and encouragement given to these developing writers. Without their contributions and direction, many of these letter writers would have remained undiscovered. Thanks to all who participated not only this year, but also in years past.

And special thanks to this year's judges

Belinda Anderson

Eva McGuire

June Robinson

Cheryl Harshman

Jay Cole

T.W. McNemar

Without whose generous contributions of time and thought, this day would not be possible!

*In addition to photographs taken as awards are presented, students are asked to gather in the Great Hall immediately following the ceremony for group photos.
Guests are welcome to take their own photos or to proceed to the reception where students can rejoin them upon completion of the photography session.*

West Virginia Center for the Book at the West Virginia Library Commission in partnership with the West Virginia Humanities Council

West Virginia Center for the Book

Letters About Literature
Awards Ceremony

Tuesday, May 27, 2014

Welcome

*Karen Goff, Secretary
West Virginia Library Commission*

Greetings

Karen Goff

Introduction of Featured Speaker

*Suzy McGinley, Youth Services Consultant
West Virginia Library Commission*

Featured Speaker

*Colleen Anderson
Author of Missing: Mrs. Cornblossom*

Awards Presentation

Mark Payne, Program Officer West Virginia Humanities Council

Closing Remarks

Karen Goff